(Indicate which)

NUMBER 746 FILED Dec. 24, 1963

Pursuant to the Foreign Agents
Registration Act of 1938 as Amended

Name of registrant (or agent) Cox, Langford & Brown

Name of foreign principals Government of the French Republic
Embassy of Belgium

The answers to the items of the above-mentioned statement listed below are hereby amended to read as follows:

(Insert proper item numbers)

Item No. 7

*2. The rendering of advice to the Embassy and certain individual members of its staff with respect to personal legal matters, such as a loss of deposited funds in a bankrupt Maryland savings and loan institution and a request for validation of the finality of a divorce decree. Advice to the French counterpart of our Atomic Energy Commission, ATEN, with regard to a matter involving their exhibit at an exhibition on nuclear energy. Occasional help on behalf of a French national in legal difficulties, either directly or by way of recommending U. S. counsel. The volume of legal services rendered during the period in question was minimal.

~~1/1/64~~ *3. Numerous items similar to those referred to in *2 above, concerning personal matters of the Belgian Embassy and its staff. Examples were the leasing of a small tract of land adjacent to Embassy-owned property here in Washington, assisting the Embassy in support of the Belgian-American Educational Foundation, providing information to a Belgian national who was a victim of fraud in the United States, helping an embassy employee on legal aspects of the acquisition of a home here, and assisting on a matter of guardianship of a minor child.

~~Item No.~~ In addition, at the request of the Defense Department, the firm acted as intermediary in helping to set up negotiations among the U. S. and Belgian Governments and U. S. and Belgian industrial concerns looking toward possible co-production of certain military weapons, such as tanks. The services performed to date have only been of the most general and exploratory nature, by way of paving the way for more specific negotiation on actual projects. The actual volume of the foregoing services during the period in question was minimal.
